the great journalist. Mr. Greely without experience is a diplomat, and though as he has repeatedly seared, his services were rendered only after the carnest collectation of the government, the country has none the less enjoyed all the benefit of them. Mr. Greely will be popular in Vienna. The Germans enjoy men of his poculiar habits and thoughts. An edition of his autoprography translated into German and Sclavonic, would have a very loope circulation throughout the Austrian empire. He would be esteemed as one of the marvels of the age, and would do much to confirm the general European opinion, that the Americanes are an extraordinary record.
